Murrow & Co. Playing 'Peek-A-Boo' With 'Freedom of the Press' Inheritance

Murrow and Company are still giving us the "cold war" treatment, playing peek-a-boo behind the "freedom of the press" protection the Boys of '76 gave us.

However, the Chamber of Commerce's Citizens Committee is preparing documented proof behind the City Commission's resolute allegations, and it says it's report will be within a few days, it is reported.

The cigarette boys are visiting the Glades in Miami Beach, and it appears that Phillip Morris' president has had his judgment concerning the wisdom of the "or else" attitude of CBS about their so-called "documented films for public service" justified. It is reported that he is a tobacco grower in Connecticut and a user of migratory labor.

Harvest Of Shame Fails Four Way Test According To Resolution Of Rotary

The Belle Glade Rotary passed the following resolution at its regular Friday meeting, enthusiastically:

WHEREAS: The members of this organization who viewed this film are strongly reminded of our own four-way test; it is the truth; it is fair to all concerned; it will build good will and better friendship; it will be beneficial to all concerned;

WHEREAS: The records are abundantly clear that the migrant problem has been solved and the migrants are not an abandoned people as depicted by the film.

WHEREAS: The progress of these efforts must be viewed under the light of the solution itself, which is one of education and desire to be helped as well as to help others.

WHEREAS: We are mindful of the provisions of our constitution which are basic to our way of life — freedom — and men who cherish this gift, first conceived by our Saviour and crystallized by our forefathers, are concerned with the self-discipline that must be a fundamental part of this concept. Furthermore, believing that the degree of ethics should not be governed by the number of people involved, we must be practical when we tally its results.

NOW THEREFORE: It is our honest judgment that this film has not met any of the above mentioned tests, and do hereby protest its presentation, not out of vindictiveness, but as a plea to all those holding the powers of influence to be cognizant of the potential of that power as it relates to our way of life.

'The Gray Goose' Is Replaced By 'The Golden Eagle' As Harbinger Of School Delinquents In The Glades

Samuel Langford Teague, school church goes and take an active part in all programs of their church.

His previous association with governmental agencies, with a most satisfactory record, has been replaced with a golden eagle, which is carrying a regular course in Roosevelt Junior College at night in an endeavor to attach some algebraic degrees to his already record.

An incident of some time ago emphasizes the work done by Teague. He strongly suspected that trucks and cars leaving the Glades for the east coast daily, when harvesting was at a season, carried school children to the harvest fields. By permission of his superiors and with the cooperation of the Highway Patrol, he began stopping labor trucks and buses heading for the coast one morning at six o'clock. Altogether the thorough search resulted in 36 school-age harvest children, who were taken to the highway, and a special bus was sent from Belle Glade to take them to school. From that time on, the school children were made to travel alone, and they most willingly instructed in the school.

"I don't know what made me suspicious," says Teague, "but one car came along and I stopped it and asked about children. The driver, a man named Pelton Morris, and will reopen on Jan. 3.

The same dates will be observed by the Elementary School.

Professional Educators Describe Work With Glades Migratory School Children

Visiting Teacher
Services To Migrants In Schools of Palm Beach County

The schools of Palm Beach County have for many years welcomed migrant children into their classrooms; it is nationally recognized that migrant children go to school while they reside in Palm Beach County.

The Palm Beach County Board of Public Instruction has been alert to the problems and educational needs of migrant children and has made heroic efforts to provide adequate schooling for these children.

I would like to mention some of the services and significant programs which have been inaugurated to accommodate migrant children, and to make school experiences more profitable for them.

1. The employment of two qualified visiting teachers who serve as a liaison between the school and the home, and who work with each child to relieve conditions which prevent children from attending school regularly.

2. Although the visiting teacher works with both resident and non-resident children alike, a greater portion of time is spent with migrant families.

3. Migrant children are generally enrolled in permanently organized schools and are integrated into classrooms with resident children. However in one densely populated area of Spanish speaking people, a special orientation school was built to meet the needs of these children.

Cuban Situation Told Catholic Men

Rafael Fanjul, former general manager of the New General Mensa Sugar Co. of Cuba, now living in Pahokee, gave a talk on the rise of Castro in Cuba, at the meeting of the Holy Name Society.

Mr. Fanjul said that he got out of Cuba with much difficulty as Castro is in dire need of money to run his government. He told the society he learned Castro's communistic leanings despite the early enthusiasm for Castro, and that the average Cuban is only now beginning to realize Castro's insincerity. He said their delusion is building up resentment, which will increase results in Castro's eventual downfall.

Aged Woman Kills Attacker In Home

Ethel Mae Emerson was exonerated by a coroner's jury quickly in the fatal stabbing of Tom Hall age near 40, in a rooming house at 540 S.W. Ave. E. Belle Glade.

Hall had knocked on Ethel's door before the fatal affray and according to witnesses had left only to return and break her door down and force entry.

Her testimony is that she stabbed him with a butcher knife while he was scuffling with her on her own bed.

Two doctors worked on the victim for several hours, but he succumbed from loss of blood. Apparently the attacker was under the influence of liquor and became confused as to where he was going. She pointed out the main artery in Hall's groin and the loss of blood forced her to arrive at the hospital was fatal. Blood stains in front of Ethel's door, down the hall and on the back porch where the police found him, indicate profuse bleeding.

Statistics On Enrollment Figures Glades Schools, White And Colored

Enrollment figures of schools in the Glades Area analyzed during the years 1953-1956 revealed that the number of transient children in elementary schools was one-half the number of permanent residents. In Senior High Schools it was approximately 10 per cent.

White Schools

Figures from the school years 1953-54 show the following: 1. Permanent permanent membership for elementary grades was 1,190.

2. Total migrant enrollment was 465.

Colored Schools

During these same years enrollment of migrant children in elementary schools was 145.

Twenty to thirty per cent of white migrant children at the time of enrollment in the Glades Area have not been enrolled in any school during that current school term. During 1953-54, according to figures from negro schools, transients amounted to 48 percent had not been enrolled previously during a current school term. During 1955-56 there were 30 percent not enrolled previously in the current school year.

Also scheduled to participate in the ceremonies are Dr. C. L. Brumback, director of the county health and welfare department, and Dr. W. E. VanLandingham, former county welfare director who retired last October after many years of service in the public health and welfare fields.

The new building is completely air conditioned and will house a number of modern medical facilities, including X-ray department and a new dental section. A modern photostatic section is also included in the plan.

In addition to the cost of the building, Palm Beach County has spent an additional $20,000 for furniture for the new health center.

PB County's New Health And Welfare Building

Dedication ceremonies are scheduled Sunday for Palm Beach County's new Health and Welfare Building at 828 Evernia Street in West Palm Beach. The modern structure has been under construction for the past year and was completed at a cost of $350,000.

Another milestone in Palm Beach County's march of progress and development will be passed Sunday with dedication of an ultra modern Health and Welfare building at West Palm Beach.

The new building located at 828 Evernia Street, has been built at a cost of $350,000 in the heart of a section which in late years has become the site for a number of governmental buildings.

The dedication ceremonies have been arranged by County

Vegetable Acreage Out Of Production Because Of New Glades Cane Planting

The announcement in Wednesday's press dispatches from Detroit that the U. S. Sugar Board had okayed the building of a new 5,000 ton sugar mill at Canal Point caused much buzzing among Glades farmers and especially those interested in planting cane.

The announcement in Wednesday's press dispatches from Detroit that the U. S. Sugar Board had okayed the building of a new 5,000 ton sugar mill at Canal Point caused much buzzing among Glades farmers and especially those interested in planting cane.

An estimate of the total cost of the two ventures brings us near the $20,000 mark, with additional payrolls and circulating money annually of $4,000,000.

This action indicates the attitude of smart and knowing business in the probability of the practical workings of the sugar quota on Florida sugar production.

Considerable acreage owned by U. S. Sugar is now leased to vegetable farmers and, undoubtedly, is being abandoned to U. S. Sugar for the additional 25,000 acres that must be planted to supply the mill.

Mr. VanLandingham has announced that plans for the mill are through the planning stages, and actual crowding heads of the Continent, as well as ambitious contenders to the Crown political and legislative halls.

In the area where "only the Lodges speak with the Cabots and the Cabots to God," a dowager of Boston's social realm informed Will: "My ancestors came over on the Mayflower," and to have Will retort, "Glad to know you, lady; My ancestors greeted yours on the beach."

Renick Promises Extended Story

"Dot" (Mrs. George) Scarboro has always held Ralph Renick's television editorials in respect, until she heard one on "The Harvest of Shame," which ended "To us, this was an hour of our life."

Dot, forthwith, told Ralph of her resentment of his support of so obvious a misrepresentation, and Ralph writes back: "We expect to do a more extended story on the subject," and he promised to see her when he comes up.

Ralph is CBS outlet in Miami, and he is Vice President, in Charge of News of WTVT, channel 4.

Mr. Renick swallowed Murrow's story, "hook, line and sinker," and editorialized accordingly to CBS devotees. His failure, we believe comes in not getting the story so close to our home. His failure to some of his most avid viewers, but a greater injury, as is Murrow's, to the reliability of news reporting and editorializing media.

Migrants "caught on an endearing treacherous line," "illiteracy and exploitation" — "did not tell a pleasant story" — in honesty that was not possible" is Ralph's verdict, to date.

Ralph further says, "We think the program performed a genuine service by getting across to the American people how these workers are being denied child labor protection, minimum wage coverage, unemployment insurance and the legal protection to organize and bargain collectively."

A sob story for do-gooders who DO more than they THINK.

YOU, TOO, CAN RAISE A DELINQUENT

Juvenile delinquency, as FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover and others emphasize, becomes a major problem all the time—both in the extent of the crimes committed by juveniles, and in the crime's seriousness. If you, as a parent want to join the parade and raise a delinquent, there are certain rules to follow. Frank Brabant, an authority on the subject, who lectures around the country, recently listed them. Here are a few:

From infancy onward give the child everything he wants, so that he'll grow up thinking the world owes him a living. Don't give him any spiritual training. Avoid use of the word "wrong"—it may give him a guilt complex. Do everything for him, so that he'll become accustomed to throwing all responsibility on to others. Give him all the spending money he wants, and never insist that he earn any of his own. Satisfy his every craving and sensual desire—after all, denial, may frustrate him. Take his part against neighbors, teachers and the police. When he gets into real trouble, apologize by saying, "I never could do anything with him."

These rules aren't hard to follow and abide by—great numbers of parents have, as surging juvenile delinquency shows. You, too, can produce a delinquent, simply and easily. The author adds one more observation: "Prepare for a life of grief. You will be apt to have one."

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

"When Social Security taxes were first levied in 1937, the maximum combined annual tax on employer and employee amounted to $60—or $30 each. By 1938, the combined tax on employers and employees will be $432—or $216 each. Since 1937, when more people became beneficiaries, the Trust fund has been declining because it has been paying out more than it received. The deficit in 1939 amounted to $1.7 billion.

"Social Security cannot continue to go up and still be security."

—West Point, Miss. Leader

"I feel sorry for the newspaper workers who slave for the metropolitan sheets. They have to work in a mechanical and impersonal atmosphere. The smaller the town the more important the news becomes. There where the folks know all the news before the paper comes out, and they take it simply to see whether or not the editor got the stories according to the way they heard them."

ONE EGG EQUALS 100 TAXES

The Tax Foundation recently counted the number of "hidden taxes" that are imposed on items in every-day use. It found that there are 100 taxes on an egg, 116 on a man's suit, 150 on a woman's hat, 151 on a loaf of bread and 600 on a house!

In case you're wondering who ultimately pays these taxes, the answer is simple. You do!

Colombia Students

Visit Here Friday

Agriculture College students from Colombia, South America, will spend two weeks studying agricultural facilities in Palm Beach County and adjoining counties.

They will arrive here in W. Palm today and leave about Dec. 28. Their trip was arranged by the U. S. and Colombian federal governments. Local civic and social clubs will provide the visitors with almost daily lunches and dinners.

County commissioners Monday agreed to provide a group with free transportation, as a gesture of friendship and good will. Commissioner Lake Lytal said the students chose Palm Beach County for their study because "they recognize it is one of the finest agricultural areas in the world."

The students, accompanied by Dr. Melton, an American Botanist at the Agricultural College and Dr. Cabal, dean of the Agriculture College in Colombia will be given the Everglades Experiment station Friday a. m. and will be taken on a tour in the afternoon they plan to make field trips to some of the Belle Glade farms, and Glades County Market.

During their stay in West Palm Beach they will visit with U. S. Sugar Mill, Clewiston, Pompano Beach, Proctor market, citrus groves and canneries around Ft. Pierce.

"SMALL BUSINESS" BY C. WILSON HARDER

For some time, the nation's independent business people, voting through the National Federation of Independent Business, have overwhelmingly favored putting labor unions under national anti-trust laws.

"So far, state laws have not taken action, but it does seem that a small business man will have to receive full action, the new Congress."

This issue should be kept in mind by the small business man. He is not alone in his struggle. He is joined by the millions of small business men who are being crushed by the power of the big business.

A perfect example of the evils of unregulated capitalism is found in the food marketing industry in Los Angeles. What the nation needs to prevent and prohibit is called the nationwide food cartels as they are trying to get a foothold in the shelves of the stores.

Uncle Dan From Democrat River

Dear Mister Editor:

A feller can tell from the signs that Christmas is about to get here again. The postmaster in New York, for instance, reports that he's getting hundreds of letters being forwarded there to Santa Claus. I would suggest forward 'em along to Washington. Santa Claus has been making that his legal residence now for the last 30 year or more.

And country folks all over the nation is reporting finding carols in the papers. The Federal government can't get the money place except from us folks back home, and experience has showed that about half of all they get from us rubs off in Washington before it gets back to us. I figure that 100 percent interest is a little high, even for education. I wish they were some education I could handle this position and save that 100 percent interest.

On account of this not being very modern thinking, I better cut it now before somebody takes me off the air.

Yours truly,
Uncle Dan

Free X-Rays Available — Some 23,000 Palm Beach County people have taken advantage of the mobile x-ray unit loaned by the State Board of Health, to check themselves for TB. Others prefer their private physicians or the County Health Department Chest Clinic, 523 4th Street, West Palm Beach, where free x-rays are available all through the year. Whichever you choose DO check yourself for TB. Remember, the earlier it is found the easier it is to cure, and even the treatment is without cost to the patient.

With an idea of putting out a good product, but without the vast money needed to force distribution through expensive advertising and promotion plans, used a wagon or a truck to take the product around to the stores and put it on the shelves.

Not having an item that would be used in mass display, the trick was always to get as effective a display as possible in a small section of the shelves to attract the consumer's attention. The item was a summer time product, a cup product graded acceptance, more trucks were put on, and eventually the item came in such demand that "cushion" placing on the shelves was no longer necessary.

Today, in all parts of the country, this same process is being repeated. Success, success, success. But for every success, a new growing business people.

Yet, if the retail clerk has a small packer to ever get started, regardless of how good a product he develops. Unless the man with an idea can dig up millions of dollars to launch the product, he will get as well as in bed.

Uncles started to correct the evils of our country by working people, which was a working step. But when money, in order to build the business, is perpetrate economic infanticide by killing off new enterprises at birth, or in the early stages, then unless the man with an idea ever greater effort than those they made, and thus should be closely regulated as irresponsible to the community as a whole.

Co. Commission Sticks

To Old Business Friends

Following a spirited debate, the county commission this week voted to extend a car rental franchise at International Airport for two West Palm Beach firms now providing this service at the installation.

The board rejected offers by Hertz and Avis Rent a Car and accepted a proposal made by National Car Rental and Old Car Rental, each of which agreed to pay the county an annual fee of $125,000, 12 1/2 percent of its gross, whichever is greater.

Hertz offered $20,000 a year or 10 percent of gross and Avis agreed to a $15,000 annual payment plus 10 percent.

In making its decision, the board recalled that two years ago Hertz and Avis refused to deal with the county on a percentage basis and took the county to court on an annual rental basis which the county eventually cut back on county revenue for the franchise.

The two local firms, represented by Phil O'Connell, were given a new contract which will expire July 1, 1954.

In another action on airport transportation, the commission extended a taxi franchise to Yellow Cab Company to 1954 for service the company is now performing at the base.

Palm Beach County will be represented in a Tallahassee parade marking the inauguration of C. Parry Bryant as Governor of the state.

The County commission this week voted to spend $800 for a float to be entered in the parade.

LaMont Criticizes TV Account Of 'Bad Side' of Migrants

From Medina Daily Journal
Medina, Orleans County,
New York

Criticism of a recent national network broadcast of "Harvest of Shame" on the migrant labor problem on Nov. 23 has been voiced by Thomas E. LaMont, prominent Orleans County fruit grower and a former professor at Cornell University's College of Agriculture.

LaMont is vice-president of the Orleans County Migrant Ministry and secretary of the New York State Horticultural Society.

He said that "farmers and others familiar with migrant workers were amazed that a national network would show only the poor side of a situation such as that of migrant labor."

He continued, "Migrant laborers come to the Western New York area in their own cars, or by commercial bus. Their earnings are high, because they work piece work when harvesting tomatoes, cherries, pears, apples and the like; they live in housing approved by the New York State Department of Health. A conservative estimate of the annual earnings of the 3,000 migrant workers in Orleans County would be between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000. They can secure work here during summer months, when work in the south is slack and they would be without work there. Peak employment in New York is between July 1 and Nov. 1."

Mr. LaMont, who is a partner in the operation of the large LaMont Fruit farm on Denmore Road, Abilene, Ind., employs some 20 migrant workers, mostly from Florida. Some come at the start of the cherry harvest season early in July, and others at the start of the tomato harvest in late August.

Average earnings on the LaMont farm are $52 per week per person for all the time migrants are here. That means, LaMont pointed out, that a man and his wife earn $124 a week. The range in total season's earnings for four months, about Nov. 1 all 20 went back to jobs in Florida.

Holly Found To Have Little, If Any Legendary Link With Christmas

The mistletoe is actually a parasite but has long been held in respect as a traditional Christmas decoration.

Researchers at the Marehead Planetarium in Chapel Hill have found a tradition, long current in England, that the mistletoe was once a fair tree in a forest.

But from its wood was made the cross upon which Christ was crucified. In consequence of its having been put to such use, the mistletoe was cursed and thenceforth lived as an insignificant and parasite plant.

Holly, however, was found to have little, if any legendary connection with Christmas. It is possible that some people have seen the word holly in the word holy. Yet, the bright green leaves and the contrasting blood red berries made it wonderful for decoration.

Murrow And Company

Crew Leader - and King is reportedly a well considered crew leader who has lifted himself up above the migrant class — has a daughter who is a college graduate and is teaching in the Lake Shore School in Belle Glade, there's dozens of other children of migrants who have entered and graduated from college, the Glades record in finding out how, where and when about migrant school pupils education, has been commended by the President's Committee and every governmental, church and lay organization and individual that has investigated the Florida and Palm Beach County area have practiced extraordinary efforts to correct deficiencies.

(4) That Ed's uniform "patry" the Secretary of Labor, lacks substance to his statements about farmers being "subsidized," grain cotton, dairy and other farmers are subsidized at political urgency, but not fruit and vegetable farmers who are the major employees of the much discussed migrants.

(5) That the Murrow-CBS production will be branded effectively "Harvest of Shame" when history of government-controlled TV broadcasters of '60 is written and its effects are known to the time-buyers and financial supporters; the quiz programs and payola disclosures by a congressional investigation raised eyebrows at the machinations of the platitudinous defenses of "freedom of expression."

Here's to "Harvest of Shame" Ed, may your and CBS's harvest be to the benefit of All Good Americans!

ita; four of them purchased cars while they were here.

"The migrant worker is essential to the fruit and vegetable growers and to the businessmen of Western New York," LaMont said.

"But the migrant worker also needs things that his money can't buy," he concluded, "and such organizations as the Orleans County Migrant Ministry have been working for several years to help provide them."

"The Orleans County group has helped to provide counseling, recreation and religious services, child care and the like, which they cannot buy with money, but which are provided for them to help them. The migrant needs to feel part of the community, and to help people to help to his by their support of the Migrant Ministry, and by the way they act in the many dealings that they have with migrant workers."

Professional Educators

shared in some of the financial cost of this project.

7. In-service training programs for teachers of migrant children have been sponsored by the county school system. Two courses were offered through the General Extension Division of the University of Florida during the school year, one for negro teachers and one for white teachers. Each course carried three semester hours of college credit. Teaching handbooks developed by members of these classes have been printed and distributed to teachers and others who are interested in the education of migrant children throughout the United States.

8. An Advisory Committee for the Education of Migrant children meets regularly to study problems and to plan ways and means to meet these problems. This committee is composed of principals and teachers selected from each of the schools in the area. Also serving on this committee are representatives from the supervisory staff, the Palm Beach County Public Health Department, and the Florida Christian Ministry to Migrants.

As a result of the work of this committee several worthwhile projects have been sponsored which have not only benefited migrant children but regular resident children also.

(a) A dental health screening, correctional and educational program. The Florida State Board of Health (Dental) with the cooperation of the Palm Beach County Board of Public Instruction provided a mobile dental unit which was located on the school grounds during the years 1958 and 1959, and through the services of a dentist who accompanied the unit, children in the elementary grades received dental examinations. Indigent migrant children received corrections in the trailer. Local civic groups contributed to pay the per diem fee for the dentist. This program has been continued through the services of the Palm Beach County Health Department and the Kiwanis Dental Clinic.

(b) An improved transfer card for migrant children which carries information that is helpful to the next school the child enters. The purpose of this card is to help the child make an adjustment more readily to the new school situation with a minimum of time lost in placing the child where he can work more effectively.

(c) Developed and sponsored a special Junior High School program for migrant children who are over-age and who need remedial instruction in basic educational subjects and training in homemaking and industrial arts. Teachers from the committee participated in two summer school workshops on Migrant Education at Florida State University.

9. Cooperate with the public health department and welfare agencies in providing services when needs are found.

10. Provide clothing, school supplies, and free lunches for indigent children.

11. Every effort is made to make the pupils feel welcome. They are integrated into regular classes in the same manner that any newcomer to a school would be welcomed.

12. Spanish speaking children are given status by their contributions in the classroom. Conversational Spanish lessons.

13. Because of the length of the harvest season, the majority of migrant children are enrolled in our schools a sufficient length of time to permit them to participate in extra-curricular activities such as: Safety patrol, athletics, 4-H Clubs, Junior Red Cross, Future Homemakers and Future Farmers of America.

in the night air so commenced an all-night proposition. From that full-time stay was natural and became the custom.

Mothers were the first to spot renewed cheerfulness and good humor of the kids, especially several with severe cases of the rickets. The prize customer of the nursery was a bright-eyed youngster, friendly and loved by everyone associated; he stayed over three months without once going home. His mother alternately cried and laughed with joy at the improvement of her child, and her determination to leave him where he was "getting so much better" constantly.

Community Center, Inc., was responsible for the addition of the nursery buildings at Camp Osceola and Camp Everglades, and the operation of both for several seasons.

This nursery operation became the "star attraction" of WPB later throughout the country as a model of local care of a problem, because they furnished assistance in operation. The National Council of Churches didn't hide it's head under a basket either for it originally guided the group through Miss Lowry.

Drive By Golden Rule During The Holidays

The Florida Highway Patrol today appealed to motorists to drive by the Golden Rule this Christmas season, and be your brother's keeper.
Continuing, the patrol said: The commandment, "Thou Shalt Not Kill," applies as much to the man or woman who drives a car as it does to anyone else on every other occasion throughout the day or night.
"If we all worked to help our friends and neighbors understand that driving is a moral responsibility, much death and agony could be eliminated from our highways during this otherwise joyous season," said Patrol Command H. N. Kirkman.
He appealed to drivers to be ever mindful that more people drive than carry a deadly weapon and emphasized that a steering wheel in the hands of a careless operator is as deadly as a gun.

P. T. A. Votes Against Division

At the regularly monthly P. T. A. meeting held in the High School Auditorium Tuesday evening, well thought out pro and con were given in favor of and against dividing the P. T. A. into two. Mr. Don Fishler and Dr. Victor Green pointed out that membership would be halved, attendance would have to be doubled, of the P. T. A. members that there were actually over 5,000 ill, and not even one psychiatrist to help with an overall program for their welfare.

After some discussion by Mr. Fishler, it was moved and seconded and approved that our P. T. A. go on record as voting not to cut the County School Budget.

The next County Council meeting will be held at our High School on Jan. 17, and Mr. Vince Marquess, the High School Guidance Counselor, announced that this Thursday afternoon, December 15th, there would be 14 college educators and professional people here to the seniors. Parents and other interested students planning a college course. The meeting and individual counseling will begin at 1:30 p. m. in the gym.

The program Tuesday night was given by the High School chorus under the direction of Miss Merry Texter with Barbara Stone as Accompanist. They offered ten well arranged Christmas songs and Annie Powell did well in her solo "O Holy Night."

The hostesses had the table in the cafeteria decorated very tastefully with the Christmas theme, and the hot coffee and homemade cookies were served by Mrs. George Dupure, Mrs. Robert Nelson, Mrs. Pella Morris, Mrs. Blon Alford and Mrs. R. L. Tenet—Mrs. M. E. Ludlow Publicity.

A total of 1,737 persons received Old Age Assistance in the amount of $86,358.00. 86 persons received Aid to the Blind, totaling $5,216.00. 747 families, representing 2,240 children, received Aid to Dependent Children in the amount of $46,485.00. 198 persons received Aid to the Disabled in the amount of $11,284.00.

In addition 428 children received service during the month, 173 of whom were in foster homes. The total state and local cost for these child welfare services was $10,952.82.

Avoid Low Calf Crop By Testing Herd Bulls

"Before turning them in with the cows, test your bulls for fertility," urges Dr. T. J. Cunha in the December issue of Florida Grower and Rancher. The noted animal expert goes on to reveal:
"Dr. Warnick of our department is finding out that about 10 to 12 percent of the bulls tested in Florida for fertility have poor quality semen. In some herds, this figure has been as high as 20 to 30 percent."

The foregoing, Dr. Cunha emphasizes, means that many low calf crops in Florida are due to sterile or poor fertility bulls. He adds:
"If you feel you cannot test your bulls, it might be well to rotate them in various pastures to eliminate possible sterile or poor fertility bulls staying with the same group of cows throughout the breeding season."

New March of Dimes Funds Help Eric, Birth Defects Victim, Reach Age of 2

Eric Brantner is a frail and appealing little boy who achieved the age of two years the other day in his crossroads home at Palouse, Wash.

Held in his mother's arms on his first birthday, blue-eyed Eric could recognize his birthday visitors, among them his dancing hound-dog, Jupiter. But not so long ago, Eric wasn't given much time by most doctors to enjoy Jupiter or other members of the household. He was born three months prematurely and also developed an enlarged head (hydrocephalus) due to excess fluid on the brain. His despairing parents, Gail and Vonda Brantner, did not believe that a second birthday was in the cards for Eric.

Then, as the head grew alarmingly larger on the substantial body, members of the Whitman County Chapter of The National Foundation came forward with an offer of March of Dimes funds if they were needed for patient aid.

They were urgently needed. Eric was rushed to Sacred Heart Hospital in Spokane, 63 miles away. There, at the age of 10 months, he underwent surgery for nearly four hours. The surplus fluid was drained away, relieving the pressure on the brain caused by blockage, and a plastic tube was inserted to keep the accumulating fluid flowing from the head to the blood stream near his heart.

Although Eric's appearance today belies his two years, the little boy looks scarcely more than six months. The doctors' view is that he now has a good chance of survival. He cannot sit up by himself and he is only just learning to toddle uncertainly in a baby walker. But he engages in lively play with his mother and father, who is a section hand for the Great Northern Railway, with his deoting brother Mark, three years, and of course with his frisky but gentle four-footed companion, Jupiter.

Eric enjoys the dubious distinction of being one of the first victims of a significant birth defect to be given patient aid in continental United States under The National Foundation's expanded program, which includes assistance in addition to continued work in polio. (The first instance of patient aid under this new program occurred last year in Honolulu where the local chapter expended March of Dimes contributions to care for a Hawaiian infant born with the birth defect of an open spine; the baby today is well along the road to a normal life.)

Otherwise, Eric's plight is not singular. Each year in this country, 250,000 infants are born with significant defects and 34,000 of them are stillborn or die within four weeks. The National Foundation, which helped develop both the Salk and the Sabin polio preventives with March of Dimes funds, moved into the area of birth defects because these congenital malformations comprise the largest unmet childhood medical problem in the nation today. With generous support of the New March of Dimes in January, hopefully the number of Eric's will in time be many thousands fewer.

Library Board Plans Benefit Projects

The last meeting of the 1960 year was held by the Belle Glade City Library Board. Reports were heard on the benefit card party held recently with eight tables of bridge by Mrs. Emmett Harris and Mrs. Joe Orsinego, the proceeds to go for the benefit of the Library. It was voted to send the ladies a letter of appreciation and thanks.

In other business the group scheduled a bake sale after the holidays and in February a rummage sale. Anyone having rummages they wish to dispose of are asked to leave at the home of Mrs. Peter LaChance, 554 S. E. 2nd St.

Board members present were Mrs. Hermon Close, president, Mrs. Herbert Beck, Mrs. Riber Mathews and Mrs. Peter LaChance.

Greeting cards were not placed in envelopes until Rust Craft Publishers introduced the first "enveloped" Christmas card in 1906.

Christmas Too Merry Early English Banned It

Christmas celebrations became so merry in Merrie Old England that they were abolished.

World Book Encyclopedia notes that the Puritans prohibited the boisterous observances in the 1640's. They threw out ministers who dared to hold services on Christmas Day and asked anyone who didn't treat December 25 as a common work day.

But while the Puritans were taking over England under Oliver Cromwell, they were losing the battle of Christmas. Riots broke out in 1647 protesting the ban on the holiday. And an outraged group of 10,000 men passed a resolution declaring that if they couldn't celebrate Christmas, they'd just as soon have the King back.

A few years later, the Puritans prudently beheaded King Charles I. But the English people invited his son Charles II to come back in 1660 and Christmas, as well as the monarchy, was restored to England.
